PRESS RELEASE

On June 6, 2016 at about 11:00pm, the Warminster Township Police responded to the 800 block of West Street Road for a report of a stabbing. Arriving officers located a 33 year old woman who reported that she was accosted while getting into her car by a suspect later identified as ANGEL RAMOS (47 yoa). The victim reported that RAMOS approached her while she sat in her car, opened the car door and attempted to rob her and sexually assault her at knife point. The victim was able to escape into a near by business and summon the police. The victim suffered stab wounds to her head and hands. The victim was treated and released from Abington Memorial Hospital. The suspect fled the area on foot.

Officers conducted a search of the area on foot and with the use of the Upper Moreland Police K9 unit and Warrington Police Officers. RAMOS was located loitering around a near by business and was immediately taken into custody and positively identified by witnesses. RAMOS was charged with Attempted Robbery, Aggravated and Simple Assault, Sexual Assault, Terroristic Threats, Recklessly Endangering Another Person and Possession of an Instrument of Crime. RAMOS was arraigned before the Honorable Gary Gambardella who set bail $7.5 million dollars. RAMOS was remanded to the Bucks County Correctional Facility in lieu of bail. No court date has been set.
