Color Our World Reading List

The theme of this years' Summer Reading Program is Color Our World. Art encompasses many different mediums. It could be music, literature, photography, theater, or drawing and painting, among others. If you read a book not listed above that uses an art medium as a major plot point, feel free to write a review on the back of your ticket so we can include it. And yes, we will accept Wicked or other novelizations of your favorite media.
